

Whiffenpoofs on Tour 2003

11 - Jul - 03

It is already a yearly affair, 'The Whiffenpoofs Return'. Amari Rincome Hotel helped their guests experience culture & cuisine at the same time with guests of honor H.S.H. Prince Bhisadej (on the very right) and Consul General Eric Rubin. Even though the tuxedos made the Yale Whiffenpoofs look very formal, they could not hide the fun plus the professionalism which stands behind their a cappella concert. They treated the audience's hunger for culture, and afterwards executive chef Adrian W. O'Herlihy (all in white in the middle) treated their hunger for food, creating delicious cuisine.
